

35 Frontier Drive

No detail has been overlooked in this gorgeous five bedroom, four bathroom home situated on a large landscaped lot at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac. Enjoy hiking at the abutting Adams Farm, 300 acres of conservation land owned by the town. Excellent craftsmanship found throughout with hardwood flooring, granite tile, detailed woodworking, and custom fireplaces. The foyer welcomes you with a grand suspended staircase overlooking the two story great room with soaring stone fireplace. Also featured on the first floor are the formal fireplaced living room and elegant formal dining room. Truly a kitchen fit for any discerning chef with gorgeous custom designed cabinets and counter tops, designer lighting and professional grade, top-of-the-line stainless steel appliances. The second floor boasts three family bedrooms along with the gracious master suite. Enjoy the master suite's private sitting room with wet bar, his and her walk-in closets, personal home gym and serene master bathroom with Jacuzzi style tub, separate steam shower and double sinks. The third floor walk-up attic has great potential for expansion - if, or when you need it. As if that were not enough, this home also features your very own professional putting green in the backyard, first floor laundry, three car garage and a fantastic all seasons room with cathedral ceilings, skylights and gas-fired stove to enjoy all year round. In perfect move-in condition, this is a property you don't want to miss.

Walpole, Massachusetts